

CELEBRATE CAROLYN'S 65TH BIRTHDAY, INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY BY REBUILDING HAITI ONE WOMAN AT A TIME

Co-Sponsored by Carolyn's family & friends, The American Association of University Women (MA & RI Chapters)

Benefiting Fonkoze, a Haitian non-profit focused on women's empowerment through microfinance (www.fonkoze.org)

When: Saturday March 6, 2010, 5:00-9:00 PM

Where: Rhode Island College Faculty Center Main Dining Room

Program: Emcee Barbara Burgo, AAUW/MA

Featuring: Silent auction; entertainment: Haitian music and American Indian drumming; screening of PBS Egalité for All, Haitian scholar Antenor Firmin discovered at RIC; Haitian food & culture; RIC President Nancy Carriuolo, Dr. Jacques Georges, Ms. Marie Prophete, Moise Bourdeau, Julianne Jennings, Hannah Resseger, Chris Souza, Frantz Sainte, Haitian American Humanitarian Action, representative from Fonkoze, family members, and more...

Visit the Event Facebook page: www.facebook.com/pages/Rebuilding-Haiti-one-woman-at-a-time/468709690576?ref=ts.

RSVP: Richard Lobban (rlobban@ric.edu)

Tickets are $30/person (including dinner and entertainment)

Unable to attend, but would like to be involved? Please send donations to:

"Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, Haiti Fundraiser"

23 Fort Ave, Cranston, RI 02905

* Logo Designed by Hannah Resseger